Privacy Policy of Piraeus Port Authority (GDPR compliance)

For Piraeus Port Authority, hereinafter referred to as “PPA”, respect for and protection of your personal data is a commitment. We understand and take seriously the fact that you are aware and interested in your personal data.

This Privacy Policy describes the personal data that the PPA collects for you, how we use and protect your personal data and your choices about how we use that data. Its purpose is to inform you about PPA’s policy regarding your personal data that you grant us so that you know the purpose of our processing by us, the category of recipients, and the procedures that you can follow to practice lawfully your rights.

We acknowledge that the protection of personal data is a permanent responsibility and therefore we will update and modify this Policy from time to time. In case of doubt regarding a term of this Privacy Policy, you can contact us by e-mail at gdpr@olp.gr

1. What personal data do we collect for you?

1.1 During your visit to our site, PPA may collect personal data: your name, address, email, telephone number.

1.2 When you sign up to receive newsletters or other promotional material: You provide us with your email address and your PPA name, enabling us to personalize our direct, non-transactional contact with you.

1.3 The provision of the above personal data is by no means obligatory. However, non-provision of the data that has been flagged as mandatory will prevent the intended use and browsing the site. Failure to provide other, non-mandatory, personal data may in no case affect our service provision.

2. How do we collect your personal data?

We may collect personal identification information from Users in a variety of ways in connection with activities, services, features or resources we make available on our Site. We will collect personal identification information from Users only if they voluntarily submit such information to us. Users can always refuse to supply personally identification information, except that it may prevent them from engaging in certain Site related activities.

3. Who else is the recipient of your personal data?

Your personal data is not processed by third parties except those with whom we work together and who are indispensable or facilitate the provision of our services to you but always under conditions that fully ensure that your personal data does not undergo any unlawful processing, other than the purpose of the transmission according to the above. As part of our activities, we use third-party providers who provide services on our behalf. We inform you that the above categories of recipients of your personal data are processors for our account and therefore as such do not process your data beyond the above purposes of transmission. In any case, our PPA will not sell or otherwise transmit or disclose personally identifiable information to visitors / users of its website to third parties other than the above, without the consent of the visitor / user, except for the application of relevant legal dictates and to the competent authorities alone.
In all cases unauthorized access to our personal data, including our employees is forbidden.

4. Why do we use (process) your personal data?

The PPA collects, maintains and processes only the personal data that is the minimum and absolutely necessary for the purpose of processing.

We use your personal data for the following purposes:

4.1. For direct marketing and / or promotional purposes, such as participation in competitions or emails that we send periodically to those who have subscribed to our newsletter. Each newsletter gives the recipient the opportunity to declare that he does not wish to receive other newsletters from us either by unsubscribe or via e-mail at gdpr@olp.gr

4.2. For cases where your personal data is processed for the purposes of our legitimate interests or for purposes of our compliance with national and European laws.

5. How much do we maintain your personal data?

5.1. We will maintain your personal data for the period that is strictly necessary for the fulfillment of this purpose and for the fullest satisfaction of your requests in relation to the order in question.

5.2. For direct marketing / promotional purposes, we will retain your personal data for three years in which you retain all rights under the applicable privacy laws and are listed in item 7 of this Policy.

5.3. Our PPA may continue to store your personal data for a longer period of time if this is necessary to protect its legitimate interests in relation to potential liability associated with the provision of the service.

6. Guarantees we receive to protect your data

When you grant us your personal data, we take steps to ensure that they are kept and handled safely. In order to protect your personal data, we receive adequate physical, technical and organizational protection measures. We update and control the security technology we use on a sustained basis. We restrict access to your personal data to those workers only who need to know this data in order to provide you with the services you desire. In addition, we educate all employees about the importance of confidentiality and the maintenance of privacy and security of your personal data. Among other things, we have implemented the following technical and organizational measures and procedures to protect your personal data from any loss, alteration, tampering or alteration:

- access to your personal data is limited to the number of authorized persons for these purposes
- IT systems used to process the data shall only be accessible by authorized persons
- access to these IT systems is monitored to detect and prevent unauthorized access – use of information systems and programs for computers that are installed in a way that minimizes the use of personal data and / or user authentication data;

– adopting individual procedures for keeping personal data and for safe deletion / destruction;

– periodic check and deactivation of inactive accounts

7. Your rights

You can exercise the following rights in accordance with the terms and specific provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679:
